

International Firestop Council Membership Application

Voting Members - Any corporation, partnership or sole proprietorship that manufactures or sells under its own label materials, systems or devices for fire containment or passive fire protection use. Voting members are entitled to hold office and participate in IFC activities subject to the by-laws of the Council.

Associate Member - Any corporation, partnership, agency or individual not qualifying as a manufacturer may become an Associate Member. Participation by Associate Member is encouraged. Associate members however, are not entitled to vote on council matters and not eligible for election as Officers or Directors of the Council.

Please send your completed membership application and dues check to:
